Central District Health Board of Health to hold weekly meetings to discuss COVID-19 developments

First meeting planned for Tuesday, July 7, 2020

Ada County – Central District Health's Board of Health is adding weekly meetings to its schedule of regular board meetings. The regular meetings will be held virtually each Tuesday at 4 p.m. MST, with the first planned for July 7, 2020. Meetings are subject to cancellation if determined to not be warranted. The July 7, 2020 agenda is available online, and subsequent agendas will be posted in advance of meetings at https://www.cdh.idaho.gov/about-boardofhealth-meetings.php.
Upon Board approval, meeting minutes will be posted to this web page.

In response to media and general public interest, CDH will offer a public viewing option for each meeting. This information will be added to each agenda at least 48-hours before the meeting date.
